

Nitrogen Program Management Framework Focusing on Impact Monitoring

Framework to improve design, deployment, monitoring of Nitrogen RD&E programs reach, engagement, facilitates co-design of solutions with target audiences, improve access to information and expertise.

Digital applications fostering online collaborations across public, researcher, service provider, farmer sectors.

The provision of a Knowledge Management Framework & Collaboration platform with spatial capability for researchers and farmers to assist with investigating and evaluating new and emerging effluent systems and manure management technologies.